

Idaho Native Plant Society, Pahove Chapter

5th Annual- Wildflower + SHOW

Are you curious about the multitude of beautiful flowers that occur in the Boise Front?
Enjoy this once-a-year opportunity, when the flowers come to YOU!

Mother's Day at the Idaho Botanical Garden

Come admire dozens of freshly collected local wildflowers, weeds, and other plants, attractively arranged and labeled with both common and Latin names.

Sunday, May 14: 10AM - 3PM
2023

Members of the Idaho Native Plant Society and other volunteers will collect and display many different wild-growing plants found locally (following ethical and legal plant collection guidelines).
